By BRYAN MORSE.
The Cardinal Athletic Club, of Alexandria, Sylvester A. Breen, president, will give way here for the District Baseball Association championship series. The series battle with the Clarendon Athletic Club for the championship of northern Virginia, scheduled to be played here Sunday, will be called off and Breen will turn over the park to the association. The Alexandria man says he wishes to be out of the way for the title games here and while he has an option on the American League baseball park for Sunday will give it to the association for the games scheduled for Sunday.
At a meeting of the District Baseball Association held last night games were arranged for the remainder of the season looking toward the establishment of winners in two sections. It is proposed to put these winners in a final series of three games which

LOOKING 'EM OVER

By LOUIS A. DOUGHER

Member Mike Donaldson, the middleweight boxer, who was booked to battle somebody or other at the old Ardmore Club a couple of years ago, failing only because his opponent was ordered to Vera Cruz to hammer spigotties? Mike used to play the Capital frequently, always explaining that he "liked the old D. C. y'know," and he made many friends on his visits here. Mike's in France now with the old Sixty-ninth Regiment of New York guards. Many better known and more skillful boxers haven't gone overseas yet.
Mike's chief claim to fame is that he was one of Stanley Ketchel's sparring partners and survived. Steve could hammer Mike from morning till night, but always found him on his feet and looking for more when night fell upon the scene. No wonder the fellies are facing trouble when Mike gets going. Donaldson belongs in Haverstraw, N. Y., wither he hopes to return to visit his mother and sister when he finishes the job now before him.
Here's a letter from Mike, who is a friend of mine, written just after the scrimmage at Chateau-Thierry to the New York Journal. It shows better than anything else the wild, untamable spirit of the American troops in France. Mike's generally a quiet cuss, never boasting of his deeds in the ring, but riled up-well, here's the letter:
"Since the Journal gave me still in the money. We expect to be in Berlin soon. We can't lose. The Green Devils are fighting mad. Heaven, hell, or Hoboken by November for the old Sixty-ninth. Your friend, and notified the Alexandria men they would get through with the District title race before entering further into the Virginia games.

"MIKE DONALDSON"

It was reported that the Clarendon would not give up the baseball park. In a letter to The Times today Sylvester A. Breen writes as follows:
"If it is true that the Clarendon Baseball Club has canceled the game with the Cardinal A. C. for the championship of Northern Virginia that was scheduled to be played in the American League Baseball Park Sunday, September 22, I am sorry, as I had a team that would have put up a great battle.
"I do not in any way desire to interfere with the Washington games, and would be pleased to have the association use the park in our team's place for their games Sunday.
"Please notify Mr. Clark Griffith as soon as possible, and inform him concerning the facts about Clarendon's refusing to play the Cardinals, and that I do not want the park."
Sylvester A. Breen,
"President Cardinal A. C."

FRASZEE COMPLAINS

BALTIMORE, Sept. 20.—Harry H. Frazee, owner of the Red Sox, who is here with his theatrical show at the Auditorium, puts in a complaint against the use of the world's champions name by a club playing the Dry Dock outfit here tomorrow. Frazee says it is a fracture of a national commission order against barnstorming.
On the Boston club are Sam Jones, Joe Bush, Everett Scott, Walter Mayer and Miller, all of the Red Sox. George Burns, of the Mackmen, and "Pop" Young, of the Tigers, are also booked to play against the Dry Dock team.

VANGUARD ON HAND

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—The advance guard of the football team, containing very promising material, appeared on the Quaker campus of coalbins and barracks yesterday, and a very healthy nucleus it is.
The early arrivals are Joe Straus, the battering ram of a halfback who shattered every line that he drove his bull into last fall; Ed Weil, the little end whose gameness overshadowed his lack of weight; Walter Roseman, the former Central High star who played such a brilliant game at quarterback in the Michigan engagement; Dick Supplee, former freshman tackle, and Bill Wolfe, a substitute varsity lineman of last year.

RUTH GETS THE COIN

For pitching nine innings against the Hartford, Conn. club last Sunday, Babe Ruth received more money than he got out of the world's series with the Cubs. For working that one game Ruth was given $1,300, while in the six world's series games his share was less than $1,000.
Ruth is in big demand throughout New England and the independent club which played against Hartford had to bid high to get the big Red Sox hurler to pitch the game. The game was extensively advertised and an immense crowd turned out to see Babe pitch and win his game. He did not hit any home runs, however.

MORGAN WILL PLAY.

Ray Morgan, Hank Shanks' substitute at second base this year with the Griffins, will play Sunday with the Shamrocks, an independent team, in Baltimore.
